Samba garu went through the Patashala rental agreement. He said that the Temple is receiving rentals from all of the parties except HSCF conducted Programs.

Samba garu continued that Language classes being conducted by Tamil school, and there is an outstanding balance of 2,350$. GC members discussed about this topic and they have provided their opinions.

Dr. Sampath mentioned that the Tamil school was in an agreement with the previous GC to be under HSCF. They had functioned under HSCF for a few years. They had not done anything in the last two years due to Covid. There were some emails from Samba garu saying that there was no such agreement.

Dr. Sampath said he spoke with Ravi Sarangarajan, Ashish Smart, and Ravi Ramaswamy to check if there was an agreement. They confirmed that there was an agreement and that they worked under the education committee chair.

Dr. Sampath continued that he wanted to hear back from the community input, and he tabled the discussion.

Because the Senior Housing Project Engineer was replaced, the new engineer has to learn from Sridhar Rao and return to the county to provide feedback.

Indiafest planning was discussed by the GC.
