V. S. Lakshmi Mangalampalli

I, Lakshmi Mangalampalli and our family, have been associated with HSCF temple prior to the Kumbhabishekam in 2005. Every opportunity I get, I have volunteered at the temple. Most of our friends say that HSCF temple is the second home for Mangalampalli family.

Currently, as HSCF EC Secretary, providing administrative and operational leadership.

- Authored HSCF key organizational policies, including
- Employee appraisal and retention,
- Employee and volunteer code of conduct and
- Employees and devotees dress code & temple etiquette.

We participate in most pujas and celebrations at the HSCF temple. About 5 years ago, I started setting up Bommala Kolovu / Golu, a south Indian tradition in celebrating Navaratri at the HSCF temple. During several occasions, I have conducted temple tours explaining the philosophy and concepts of deities in Hinduism.

I have been promoting Satvik diet, and I take pride in insisting No Onion, No Garlic parsadam. I have been a Go To person to many devotees for panchangam related information and more.

I fluently speak, read and write multiple Indian Languages Telugu, Kannada, Samskirtam and Hindi. I have been teaching Samskritam voluntarily for several years and teaching to recite several Stotra's once a week under HSCF Education banner. Over 26 years, I have been promoting families to speak in one's mother tongue at home so that every Indian origin child knows their family roots and culture.

Professionally, I am employed at FedEx. On an daily basis, I work with several business teams internationally located in Asia, Europe and America, in software development of FedEx business. I also supervise, validate and document the work performed by team members.
