SINDHUJA BABU

HSCF Community Service & Volunteer Profile

PROFILE

Our family has been actively associated with HSCF for over 22 years. My late husband, Babu Balasundaram, was actively involved in HSCF and deeply valued its traditions and community service. Following his passing, I have continued to increase my involvement in HSCF, carrying forward our family's legacy of devotion, service, and community engagement.

COMMUNITY SERVICE & LEADERSHIP

HSCF Temple Tour Guide

- Help visitors understand temple traditions, deities, and religious practices. HSCF Sandwich Club
- Participate in food preparation and community outreach initiatives, encouraging volunteerism and youth involvement.

Om Muruga Group

- Participate in devotional activities promoting spiritual awareness and devotion to Lord Muruga.

India Festival – Youth Club Volunteer

- Contribute to cultural festival activities and community engagement.
- Introduced Falooda as a festival offering, which received an enthusiastic response and became a big hit.

MSCF – Volunteer & Leadership

- Actively participated in MSCF volunteering activities.
- Served as an Office Bearer for two years, contributing to organizational activities and community initiatives.

CORE STRENGTHS

- Community Service & Seva
- Volunteer Coordination & Teamwork
- Cultural Event Participation
- Youth Engagement
- Religious & Cultural Awareness
- Community Outreach

COMMITMENT TO HSCF

With over two decades of family association with HSCF, I remain committed to serving our temple community, preserving our cultural and spiritual traditions, and fostering stronger connections across generations. Continuing my involvement is also a heartfelt way to honor my late husband, Babu Balasundaram, and carry forward his legacy of community participation and service.